

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. 3:12cr057

SUNDAY SATTERWHITE,

JUDGE WALTER H. RICE

Defendant.

DECISION AND ENTRY FINDING DEFENDANT IN VIOLATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE, REVOKING SAME AND IMPOSING SENTENCE, WITH A REIMPOSED PERIOD OF SUPERVISED RELEASE TO FOLLOW
UPON CERTAIN STATED CONDITIONS; RIGHT OF APPEAL EXPLAINED
AND UNDERSTOOD; TERMINATION ENTRY

On May 30, 2013, the Defendant, having previously been found in violation of her supervised release which began April 20, 2011, appeared in open Court for final disposition.

Pursuant to the record made on the aforesaid May 30, 2013, this Court found the Defendant in violation of her supervised release which began April 20, 2011, revoked same and remanded the Defendant to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States, the Bureau of Prisons, for a period of time served (86 days), with a three period of supervised release (minus the aforesaid 86 days served on revocation) to follow. As conditions of said reimposed period of supervised release, the Defendant is to comply with all previously undischarged conditions of supervision, and to completely comply with each of the nine factors of the attached Supervision Plan.

Following the above, the Defendant was orally explained her right of appeal, and she indicated an understanding of same.

The captioned supervised release violation proceeding is ordered terminated upon the docket records of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division, at Dayton.
